

STUDENT SATISFACTION SURVEY

The Student Satisfaction Survey (SSS) is administered to the seniors who are applying for graduation within the current semester. The survey is part of a packet that is given to them by their colleges record clerks. The Assessment Resource Office has compiled the data from the SSS for the past 5 years and this issue of DATAWave will cover the SSS from Academic Year 2002-2003.

The SSS consists of 3 major areas, Curriculum/Instruction, Support, and Overall Assessment. Under each area are approximately 5-7 questions. Each area is rated with a 5 choice scale. The scale choices are:

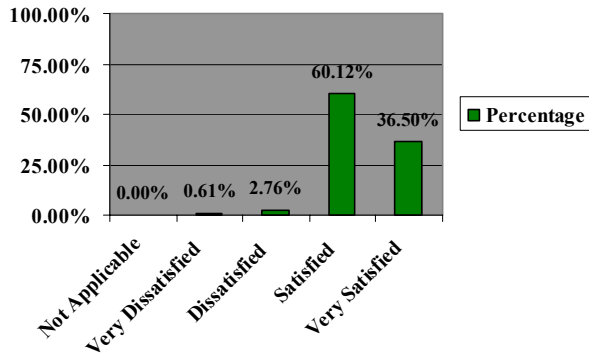

- Very Satisfied
- Satisfied
- Dissatisfied
- Very Dissatisfied
- Not Applicable
