Student Responsibility

Students are responsible for complying with all regulations of the University, the Graduate School, and the program they select for their major, their emphasis or their non-degree interest. Specifically, it is the students' responsibility:

1. to read, understand and adhere to all requirements and processes established in this catalog;
2. to formulate and file promptly an official degree plan approved by the graduate advisory committee, graduate coordinator and graduate dean;
3. to initiate in writing necessary changes and substitutions involving the graduate advisory committee, the major, the degree plan or other degree requirements;
4. to make arrangements for the necessary duplication and binding of the thesis, pay all fees; and
5. to apply for graduation.
