

David G. Heflin

409 Monticello Pkwy. Dr.
Portales, New Mexico, 88130
575-218-4682
David.Heflin@ENMU.edu
dgkeheflin@gmail.com

Education

Master of Arts in Religion (Theology and Ethics) – Azusa Pacific University, Azusa, CA, July 2009

Thesis: “The Embedded Theology of Alexander Campbell and Its Impact on His Hermeneutic”

Bachelor of Arts (Bible) – Oklahoma Christian University, Oklahoma City, OK, December 2001

Diploma in Advanced Biblical Studies – Center for Christian Education, Irving, TX, May 2000

Teaching Experience - Humanities

Eastern New Mexico University, Portales, New Mexico, Religion Program

- Historical Literature of the Old Testament – Spring 2016
- Principals of Biblical Interpretation - Fall 2015
- Biblical Perspectives on Relationships - Spring 2015
- Pentateuch – Fall 2014
- Old Testament Survey – Fall 2010 – Spring 2014
- Independent Study (Missions), Summer 2011
- Christian Missions – Fall 2011

Ministry Experience

- Third and Kilgore Church of Christ, Portales NM, Preaching Minister, Jan. 2010 - present
- Palm Springs Church of Christ, Palm Springs, CA, Preaching Minister, Aug. 2004 – Oct. 2009
- Let’s Start Talking Ministry, Bedford, TX, Team Developer (mission team recruiter, trainer, and supervisor), Aug. 2000 – Aug. 2004
- Singing Oaks Church of Christ, Denton, TX, Campus Minister Intern/Interim, Aug. 1997 – May 2000

Ministry experience includes leadership team participation and development, preaching sermons and teaching classes for all ages, pastoral counseling and visitation, recruitment and development of short-term mission teams, overseas mission projects, administration and supervision of teams located in a particular area of the world, officiating at weddings and funerals, coordinator for small groups, retreat and other event planning, etc.

Biographical Information

Born: Houston, TX

High School: Valley View ISD, Valley View, TX

Other Education: Sam Houston State University, Huntsville, TX (2 years)

Married with three children