3. Describe where you are from and your family heritage. It's a place with is green and fruitful almost throughout the year, flowers never stop blossoming and it's still home to me. I was born into a family that isn't so connected with their tribes, yes I can speak the languages of my parent's tribes and Know a little about them but being brought up in the 21 century a lot has changed about tradition, the bit I know about it is the bit I can share.
4. How do you embrace your culture? Celebration independence day on the 24th of October, speaking in my mother tongue, this way I cannot lose my knowledge about it. My accent is another way to embrace it.
5. What do you feel you can contribute to Multicultural Affairs? Help expand knowledge about my home country. And African dressing style at large
6. How would you encourage others to embrace their cultures? By feeling free to dress in the way that makes them feel as though they are still part of where they come from even if they are not there at the moment.
7. What is/was your favorite multicultural presentation so far? Khotla, about India's diversity
8. What is your favorite thing about ENMU? The campus is small enough, it's a good thing.
9. How has being the Ms. International affected your perspective on your culture? It has made me realize that most African countries have similar dress styles and
10. What is the one aspect of your culture you feel most passionate about? The languages, there being 72 languages, I feel like I would like being about to speak only 3 of those is far from good enough.

11. If you could describe your culture with three words what would they be and why? colorful- most of the clothing they made are colorful, Graceful- most of the people are God fearing, Strong- they are not easily let down because they know their family is always there for them, and the lord is always watching.

12. What's your favorite part about being Ms. International? I have an opportunity to meet more international students on a personal level and am hoping more people apply for the position next time because it still doesn't feel like I deserved it as no one else participated.

13. Who is your biggest influence and why? Kyree Mackey, she was one of the first friends I made at ENMU, and I will thank God every day for giving me an opportunity of meeting her.

14. If there is one thing you wanted the ENMU community to know about your culture what would it be? At least one lovely Gospel song because I am Christian and my country is a Christian nation.

15. What some advice you would give to future Ms. International? Make friends, be happy and try make an effort to attend multicultural events because they are not only fun but they enrich you with all kinds of knowledge
