Greyhound Grads Capture the Moment in Colorado

Lujan isn't the only Greyhound Grad working behind the scenes in Colorado.

His fiancée, Jennifer Sedillo, graduated from ENMU in 2015 and works at two news stations in Denver.

How did Eastern prepare them for the world of broadcasting? Read their story to find out!

Communication Major at ENMU Likes "Hands-on" Program

"The communication program at ENMU is one of the best in the state," says Kaitlin McKay, a current student.

"I have already made a lot of connections with news stations and some TV production studios in New Mexico."

Read Kaitlin's story to learn why she thinks attending Eastern is "one of the greatest decisions" she has made.

Website Backend Upgrade

The website backend upgrade launched on July 5. This upgrade fixed the site foundation and provided users with an upgraded menu structure.

Provide feedback using the "Website Feedback" link, located at the bottom of every page in the site.

Register for Parking

Make sure your vehicles are registered at Eastern New Mexico University. You can register as many vehicles as you would like and registration is free for all vehicles. University policy requires all vehicles to be registered on campus if they are going to be parked or operated on university property.

New parking decals are available at the ENMU Police Department. Parking decals for students, faculty, staff and community members are set to expire on Saturday, Jul. 1. The expiration date on your current decal is located in the lower left hand corner. The ENMU Police Department will resume enforcement for "Failure to Register" and "Expired Decal" on Monday, Aug. 28.

Contractor, visitor and temporary decals are also available at the ENMU Police Department. Applications for parking can be picked up at the ENMU Police Department.

New vehicle registration requires a completed application form to be presented in person at the ENMU Police Department for verification purposes along with a valid and current driver's license and state motor vehicle registration.

A renewal registration requires an applicant to simply come into the ENMU Police Department with their driver's license and state vehicle registration to verify information on file and receive a new sticker.

If you have any questions regarding parking regulations on campus, contact the ENMU Police Department at 575.562.2393.
