

Areas of Interest College of Liberal Arts and Sciences

We will have three breakout sessions for our College of Liberal Arts and Sciences to provide more detailed information regarding your area of interest.

STEM and Health Professions

Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics

Archaeology
Aviation Science
Biochemistry
Bioinformatics
Biology
Biological Anthropology
Chemistry
Computer Science
Ecology, Evolution and Organismal
Biology (EEOB)
Electronics Engineering Technology
Environmental Science
Forensic Anthropology
Forensic Biology
Forensic Chemistry
Forensic Science
Industrial Mathematics and Statistics
Mathematics
Microbiology, Molecular Biology
and Biotechnology (MMBB)
Renewable Energy
Wildlife and Fisheries Science

Humanities and Social Sciences

Cultural Anthropology
Criminal Justice
English
History
Psychology
Religion and Biblical Languages
Social Studies
Sociology
Spanish

Health Professions

Our Biology and Chemistry Programs advise and support students who have interests in going to medical school or other professional health-related fields. Our curriculum provides the foundational coursework that medical and other health-related professional schools are looking for in their prospective students.

Pre-Dentistry
Pre-Medicine
Pre-Pharmacy
Pre-Physical Therapy
Pre-Physician's Assistant

Health and Human Services

Communicative Disorders
Social Work